

NEWCASTLE DISTRICT WOMENS HOCKEY ASSOCIATION Hookin2Hockey Program

Newcastle District Womens Hockey Association is on the hunt for our next Olympic Star. With the help of Hockey Australia and Hockey New South Wales's junior recruitment program we are able to offer a program that is aimed at our younger players, both girls and boys who are interested in hockey.

The Hookin2Hockey program provides children aged five to twelve with the opportunity to learn the basic fundamental skills of hockey in a safe and fun environment. Program commences on 4 May, 2013 for 12 weeks, finishing 31 August, 2013. Excluding school holidays. The venue is Newcastle International Hockey Centre, Turton Road, Broadmeadow.

Every participant will received a pack that includes a fold out backyard hockey goal, a replica Australian playing top, Hookin2Hockey participant medallion, Hookin2Hockey Kookaburra stick, shin guards, hockey ball, highlights package DVD and an Olympic video email from Madonna Blyth and Liam De Young.

REGISTRATION DAY WILL BE ON:

13 APRIL, 2013 between 10.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m. at the NEWCASTLE
INTERNATIONAL HOCKEY CENTRE, Turton Road, Broadmeadow.

Cost: $95.00 all inclusive. Amount to be paid at time of registration.

Hookin2Hockey coordinator Sharon Williams, President, Newcastle District
Womens Hockey Association.
